A Capital Weekend 2018

The Washington Branch of the RSCDS welcomes you to the 25th annual Capital Weekend! We will be dancing at The Academy of the Holy Cross (AHC) in Kensington, MD. AHC has a wonderful hardwood dance floor adjacent to the cafeteria. There is easy access from the Capital Beltway and ample parking. The gym is air conditioned and our guest teacher and musician promise to make this a very special weekend.

We begin with our Welcome Dance on Friday night. On Saturday morning we offer a general dance class taught by our guest teacher, Malcolm Brown. A catered lunch following the class offers a great opportunity to socialize and relax before the ball review. We then begin our evening with the Grand March and, of course, finish our Saturday with the Capital Ball. You are invited to the After Party and on Sunday all are invited to a potluck brunch hosted by John and Jo MacLeod. Malcolm Brown has graciously agreed to hold a teachers' class on Sunday afternoon - please note that this class is for teachers only.

Accommodations

A list of nearby hotels is available on our website. If you would like to stay with a local dancer, please send a request to sally_buckner@comcast.net before April 2018 with "Hospitality Request" on the subject line.

Directions

AHC is easily accessed from the Capital Beltway. Detailed driving directions are available on the AHC website.

The Music

Elke Baker on fiddle, Liz Donaldson and Terry Traub on piano, and Alex Lacquement on bass will be providing the very best of Scottish country dance music throughout the entire weekend. We are excited to have these nationally and internationally acclaimed musicians from Boston, Baltimore, and Washington, D.C. and we know they will bring on the fun!

The Teacher

We are delighted to have Malcolm Brown from York, UK as our invited guest teacher! Since obtaining his teaching certificate in 1972 Malcolm has been an active international participant in dancing schools and events in the UK, Europe, Japan, Australia, and the US. In recent years he has taught at various locations throughout Russia, from Novosibirsk to St. Petersburg, and in 2013 he tutored students in Voronezh for Part 1 of the teaching certificate. In addition to devising several dances Malcolm has been on the Management Board of the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society and he is now a Convenor of the Education and Training Committee. In 2012 Malcom was awarded the Society's Scroll of Honor in recognition for his services to Scottish country dancing.

We look forward to having Malcolm as our guest teacher and welcome him to Capital Weekend 2018!
