

Malcolm Brown

Since 1972, when he got his teaching certificate, Malcolm has taken part in lots of dancing schools and events in the UK and around the globe, including Europe, USA, Japan and Australia. In recent years he has taught at various locations throughout Russia, from Novosibirsk to St Petersburg, and in 2013 he tutored students in Voronezh for Part 1 of the Teaching Certificate. He has been on the Management Board of the Society and now he is a Convenor of the Education and Training Committee. In 2012 he was awarded the Society's Scroll of Honour in recognition of his services to Scottish Country Dancing. Malcolm is also known as the author of several dances.
